

PHME26 July 8th to 10th, 2026

Oslo Norway

Sponsorship Invitation

We invite your organization to benefit from PHM Europe 2026 in Oslo, Norway - a planned in person event following the successful PHME24 in Prague:

- Exhibition Stand Space (physical and virtual) close the attendees and action
 - Upload your Demo Video / Narrated Presentation for all attendees to encourage visits
 - Opportunity to schedule Technology Demonstration sessions
- Identification at panel and paper sessions and on attendee engagement smart phone app
- Great networking at the welcome reception, breaks and banquet, as well as around the conference centre
- Brand logos and links in communications- website, participant smart phone app, banners, flyers, posters
- Complimentary or reduced rate registration for your VIP(s)
- A beautiful conference centre venue (all meals included) overlooking the Oslo fjord:
<https://www.soriamoria.no/>
- Great adjacent hotel with rooms at 120 euros with breakfast

This 9th meeting will feature keynote presentations from PHM leaders, high quality peer-reviewed presentations of research and industry application papers, panel sessions and free tutorials with thought leaders as well as special technical sessions, a doctoral consortium, data challenge and optional short courses (Fundamentals and Analytics). The website is being updated regularly at <https://www.phm-europe.org>.

Get involved and steer the event with a: panel, technology demo, paper session, data challenge data set, keynote
